The Law Regulating Newspapers and Periodicals.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid; the subscribers are responsible for all the numbers sent.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills, and ordered their papers discontinued.

4. The Courts have decided that a refusal to take a newspaper or periodical from the Post Office without notifying the publisher, and the payment of all arrearages, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

5. Subscribers to newspapers or periodicals removing, are liable to pay so long as the paper or periodical may be sent to the residence of the party at the time of subscription, unless notice is sent of such removal to the publication office.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

LAVING sold my interest in the "Bangor China Tea Store to Messrs. A. K. ROLLINS and S. L. MERRILL, I take this opportunity to commend my successors to the patronage and full confidence of the public. Their past efforts as successful merchants, and their present determination to establish a first class trading-house, entitle them to a liberal patronage.

All accounts of the firm of S. L. Merrill & Co. will be settled by myself. O. R. PATCH.

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at the Bureau.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England; but through its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The testimonials below gives more than mine is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

ESTABLISHMENT —OF THE KIND—

IN THE STATE!

No. 20

Main Street, - - - - - Bangor.

I SAY IT, not boastingly, but it is a fact, and any one who will take the trouble to visit my establishment will be convinced of the truth of the statement.

Boots and Shoes.

My assortment of Boots and Shoes cannot be surpassed by any store in the State. I have constantly on hand, and am manufacturing, all the varieties of Ladies, Misses and Children's SHOES and GAITERS; also, Men's Work of every description. All work manufactured in my own establishment is made on the

the principle of which is well known. I have manufactured for the last twelve months on the "Patent Last," and am convinced that a vast deal of human suffering might readily be saved by those who have corns and bunions, and conferring advantages which can be most sincerely appreciated by those who suffer from tender feet.

To Officers and Soldiers!

Every Officer and Soldier should have his Boots or Shoes made on the "Plumer Patent Last." A soldier can travel further in a day, and with less fatigue; the natural arches of the foot are properly supported, and their development is favored, so as to produce a firm and elastic tread. Try them, and you will be convinced.

FURS.

LADIES, now is your time. I have on hand the Best Assortment of Fur Goods ever offered in this city, viz:

Cloaks, Capes, half Capes, quarter Capes, Victorines, Collars, Muffs, Cuffs, &c., &c., all manufactured in the best styles, and the workmanship is not to be surpassed. I can show you the

and a great variety of the more common qualities.

OLD FURS made over, enlarged and repaired, in the best style.

A GREAT VARIETY OF

ELECTRICITY

DRS. DEMING BROTHERS

WOULD most respectfully announce to the citizens of Bangor and vicinity, that they have taken a suit of Rooms at

21 1-2 STRICKLAND'S BLOCK, on Kenduskeag Bridge; where we shall remain through the winter, to treat CHRONIC DISEASES by the Electropathic Treatment.

We would especially invite the afflicted, that are laboring under any old and inveterate chronic Diseases, in the form of Scrofula, Hip Disease, White Swelling, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Rash, and every Humor of whatever kind and character; likewise, Spinal Diseases, Curvatures, St. Vitus' Dance, Fits, Paralysis, Contracted Muscles, Distorted Limbs, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, &c. We would likewise call the attention of the public to our peculiar and successful manner of curing in every instance, when in the acute stage or when the lungs are not fully involved.

The most obstinate cases of nervous or sick Headache, Neuralgia in the head, face and extremities, with acute and chronic Rheumatism, are instantly relieved and permanently cured in a few applications.

☞ To the ladies Drs. D. most especially call, who are sufferers with Dropsy, Debility, Leuchorea, (or Whites,) inflammation and Falling of the Womb, abscesses, Tumors and Cancers of the Womb, and will guarantee a permanent cure in every case.

For Suppressed, Irregular, Painful Menstruations, Neuralgia of the Womb, with all their suffering ills, there is no agent in the world so efficient in curing as Electricity. In many cases, serious obstructions can be broken up in a few minutes, and in every case it destroys the tendency to relapse. To all those desiring PERFECT HEALTH and the services of the oldest Medical Electricians in the United States, we most respectfully invite to call, tendering to all a positive assurance of a full recovery of health.

P. S.—Drs. D. first introduced electricity for extracting teeth without pain.

To those having decayed teeth or stumps, of desiring their teeth out for re-setting, we extend a polite invitation. During the operation the person experiences a pleasing, invigorating sensation.

N. B.—For extracting Minerals and Humors from the system we use electro-chemical Baths.

☞ Office hours from 8 to 12 A. M., 1 to 6 and 7 to 9 in the evening. Consultation Free.

ILLUSTRATED

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN;

Best Mechanical Paper in the World.

SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

VOLUME VI—NEW SERIES.

A NEW VOLUME of this widely circulated paper commences on the first of January. It is published WEEKLY, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its columns.

To the Mechanic and Manufacturer.

No person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of "doing without" the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. It costs but four cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which cannot be found in any other publication. This an established rule of the publishers to insert none but original engravings, and those of the first class in the art, drawn and engraved by experienced persons under their own supervision.

To the Inventor.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrations and descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous, thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France, and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is inspiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may think of interest to our readers.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights and Farmers.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information particularly to the interests of millwrights and millowners will be found published in the Scientific American, which information they cannot possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which planters and farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

TERMS.

To mail subscribers, Two Dollars a year, or One Dollar for six months. One Dollar pays for one complete volume of 416 pages; two volumes comprise one year. The volumes commence on the first of January and July. Specimen copies will be sent gratis to any part of the country. Also, a pamphlet of information to inventors about obtaining patents sent free.

Western and Canadian money or Post-Office stamps taken at par for subscriptions. Canadian subscribers will please to remit twenty-five cents extra on each year's subscription to prepay postage.

In Peace or War on land or sea,
Our flag, the sign of the free,
Bright emblem of Columbia's glory!
Shall tell to coming years the story,
How, stout of heart, and strong of hand,
The patriots of our native land
Bore it, the nation's hope and life,
On tented field, 'mid fearful strife,
Still on! 'till through the sulphurous cloud
It broke in triumph, Treason's shroud!

The War Feeling in England.

The advices by the Niagara show a continued feeling of hostility in England against this country. They show not only the success which the rebel agents have had in misleading and poisoning public opinion in regard to our domestic difficulties, but indicate a determination also on the part of many presses and leading men to influence the public feeling against us to the highest degree, and thus force the government into war, whether it desires it or not. Foremost and meanest among these is the London Times. No story is too improbable or too ridiculous for its use if hereby the prejudices of its readers can be rendered more bitter. Take for instance the report by the last steamer, that the Times editorially relates a conversation alleged to have taken place between Mr Seward and the Duke of Newcastle at an entertainment given in this country to the Prince of Wales in which Mr. Seward told the Duke he was likely to occupy a high office, and that when she did it it would become his duty to insult England, and he should insult her accordingly.

Such preposterous nonsense as this is seriously paraded before the English people by a leading organ, and doubtless believed by the great mass of ignorant and credulous readers. Intelligent men of course know that no statesman in his senses could seriously make such a remark. The conductors of the Times, know it well enough, but they and all the English tories have an object to accomplish and will not stick at any improbable or monstrous story to accomplish their end. They believe the United States to be in a condition of extremity by reason of domestic difficulties, and to make sure of the downfall of our Republican government they are stimulating that noble beast the British Lion, to jump upon us, and crush out our remaining life. There is a peace party in England animated by more honorable sentiments, but as in the time of the revolution it seems to be overborne by the tories and aristocrats who desire to improve this opportunity to crush out liberal principles by destroying the only Republican government of any account in the world.

What will be the course of the Cabinet at Washington is not yet known. The people are justly incensed at the base and cowardly conduct of England, but a wise policy would not perhaps dictate a resort at once to a defiant policy. It is certainly [illegible] England could not be permitted to select her own time for a war with us. Her unfriendly and insulting demeanor will not be forgotten, but if there is an honorable mode of avoiding the present issue no means of doing it should be neglected. If deprived of this pretence for war, England can hardly raise another until by our hoped-for successes against the rebels, and the completion of our coast defences we shall be in a condition to meet her on more equal terms. If the Mason and Slidell pretence is taken away, she can make no immediate war upon us, except by an open and wanton attack on our blockading squadrons, which would be an outrageous violation of international law, that she would not dare to attempt it in the face of the other nations of Europe.

We desire to see no abandonment of national honor, and would not yield the rebel commissioners upon any peremptory demand. But we can honorably submit to an arbiter even of England's own choosing. We hope if England declines to name an arbiter, that our government will offer to submit the question to the Emperor Napoleon. If England then refuses, we shall go to war with the good will of France at least, and probably of other European nations.

Anna A Dower, charged with poisoning Mrs Rhoda M. Wilkins, of Lowell, Mass., was convicted of murder in the first degree, last week. The first instance, it is said, of a woman being convicted of murder in the first degree in Massachusetts since the Revolution. A motion has been made for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

The further issue of proclamations by our commanding Generals is to be prohibited by his Administration.

Correspondence of the Albany Evening Journal.

A scamper from Mr. Wood.

Washington, Nov 29, 1861.

Heretofore, when in Europe, my thoughts and attention were diverted by objects which surrounded me. Home, except in its domestic remembrances, was forgotten. All business cares and political responsibilities were dismissed. Not so now. The condition of our beloved country presses heavily and heavily upon my mind. For the first time in my life my pillow fails to bring repose. On shipboard, and here, the nights pass wearily. And reflection is aggravated by the evidence which meets you everywhere that the public mind of Europe has been abused and perverted, that the causes of the war are either wholly misunderstood or totally ignored. I have not yet met a foreigner who does not, in his conversation, misstate the question wrong and first—who does not twist and traverse everything. They generally regard the South as oppressed—the North as the aggressor; and of course their sympathies are with the weaker section.

These views were born while we slept. And the enemy has been most diligent. Long before we could realize the possibility of a civil war, treason was doing its work here. More than a year ago prominent southern men were in Paris representing the wrongs of the South as so grievous that they could not be endured, that an "abolition President" was to be followed by violent emancipation.

The secession influences most active and potent here come from that portion of our country ceded to us in 1801 by France. They represent to the French people, and probably to the Government, a willingness to be re-annexed to France, if in that way only they can be exempted from northern oppression, and so all informed are people on this side of the Atlantic, that the monstrous delusion pervades and darkens the public mind. Louisiana wronged and oppressed by the Federal Government! Oh, how wicked and perverse! That state has, in an eminent degree, enjoyed favor and protection. Her rights and her interests have been cherished. She has grown rich by means of Government protection—a protection without which the sugars of the West Indies and the Brazils would have rendered her soil comparatively valueless. Louisiana loses no slaves, nor are her rights or interests in any way affected by the North. On the contrary, she is indebted to the North for protection against the South—Virginia and South Carolina having for many years been as hostile, in their policy, to Louisiana, as to Massachusetts.

In France, and to some extent in England the manufacturers believe that the South not only furnishes cotton, but is also their best market for silks, &c., &c. This and other delusions must be dispelled. We must find some mode of reasoning and converting opinion.

In one most essential element of war we shall soon be relieved. The fact that the South intended war long before we supposed it possible, and not only filled northern arsenals, but procured large supplies of arms from Europe, left us to open the campaign at a great disadvantage. This disadvantage has both delayed action and exposed our troops to murderous fire before their inferior arms became effective. But this inequality will soon cease. Mr George L Schuyler, the Government Agent, has completed his mission. He has obtained from the government arsenals in Austria and Saxony over one hundred thousand rifles equal to any in the world.—Those arms are now on their way to America.

Mr Schuyler, though for a long time embarrassed and thwarted, and all the while encountering rivalries and complications, finally overcame them all, and goes home rewarded for his efficiency and fidelity, by complete success.

It seems now to be generally understood that an exchange of prisoners has been decided upon and the leaving of a vessel from Boston for the South, with some three hundred rebel prisoners, who are to be exchanged for the same number of ours at Richmond and Charleston—indicates that the movement is to be no tardy one, however long the government may have been in deciding to make it.

How William Brown 'got his Quarter.

While on my lonely beat, about an hour ago a light trend attracted my attention and on looking up I beheld one of Secesh's pickets standing before me.

"Stranger," says he "you remind me of my grandmother, who expired before I was born, but this unnatural war has made us enemies and I must shoot you. Give me a chew terback or"

He was a young man, in the prime of life, and descended from the First Families of Virginia. I looked at him, and says I—

"Let's compromise my brother."

"Never!" says he "the South is fighting for her liberty, her freedom and the pursuit of happiness, and I feare most respectfully to welcome you with bloody hands to a hospitable grave."

"Stand off six paces, says I "and let a man whose name shall come before the coroner first."

He took his place and we fired simultaneously. I had a ball go whistling by a barn about a quarter of a mile off on my right, and when the smoke cleared away I saw the Secesh picket approach me with an awful expression of woe on his otherwise dirty countenance.

"Soldier" says he was there anything in my head before you fired?"

"Nothing, says, "save a few harmless insects."

"I speak not of them" says he "Was there anything inside of my head?"

"Nothing," says.

"Well, says he, just listen now."

He shook his head mournfully, and I heard something rattle in it.

"What is that?"

"That," said he, "is your bullet, which has penetrated my skull, and is rolling around in my brain. I die happy, and with an empty stomach, but there is one thing I should like to see before I perish for my country. Have you a quarter about you?"

Too much affected to speak, I drew a coin from my pocket and handed it to him. The dying man clutched it convulsively, and stared at it feverishly.

"This," said he, "is the first quarter I have seen since the fall of Sumter, and had I wounded you, I should have been totally unable to have given you any quarter. Ah, how beautiful it is! how bright, how exquisite and good for four drinks! But I have not time to say all I feel."

The expiring soldier then laid down his gun hung his cap and overcoat on the branch of a tree and blew his nose. He then died.

And there I stood, my boy, on that lonely beat, looking down on that fallen type of manhood, and thinking how singular it was he had forgotten to give me back my quarter. The night and the though so admonished me that I was obliged to turn my back on the corpse and walk a little way from it. When I returned to the spot the body was gone! Has it gone to heaven? Perhaps so, my boy—perhaps so—but I haven't seen my quarter since.

Bob Adelaide, Smith, from Boston, of and for Ellsworth, in ballast, broke her rudder and went ashore near Gurle Head in the storm of the 22d inst, where she now lays badly damaged and full of water.

Gen Scott's Return Home. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun intimates that Gen Scott was intrusted to Mr. Seward that he has come home on a special and most important mission from the Emperor of France in reply to the [illegible] of the British [illegible]. He had a long and very important interview on the subject with the Emperor, in which the Emperor intimated his to assure the United States government of his sympathy [illegible] and endeavor to prevent a war between the United States and England [illegible]

LOCAL AND MAINE ITEMS.

[illegible] We will be prepared to execute job work of all kinds at remarkably low prices and in the neatest style.

☞ Copies of the Daily Whig—price three cents—for sale at our counting-room.

☞ Our Carriers and newsboys will supply papers while on their routes.

 Subscriptions for a less time than three months 50 cents per month.

☞ Rev Mr. Everett lectures tomorrow evening at Union Street Church. Services commence at 7 1-2 o'clock. Subject—"The Relation of Science to Theology."

☞ A rain storm came on very unexpectedly yesterday morning, and has carried off a portion of our snow.

☞ Mr James Freeman, the great oyster dealer of Portland, sent the hungry editors of our State his usual Christmas donation. The bivalves were of the A1 pattern, and we don't wonder at the delectable state of mind produced in some of the brethren by so unusual a feast.

☞ A letter from Hilton Head states that the resignation of Col Strickland of the Maine 8th takes effect January 1st.

☞ The St. Croix Herald has again appeared—the damage done to its office at St Stephen by the secession mob, having been repaired.—The editor, speaking of the damage, says

On entering our office in St. Stephen, a fiend's destruction presented itself. The door had been forcibly broken open, the lock smashed and nearly everything within reach either destroyed or rendered useless. Whole fonts of type were scattered about the floor cases were smashed to pieces and the inside form, which had been made up for the regular issue, converted into a heap of pi. Some of the cases and a quantity of type were found in the river, and much of it was scattered around the office in various directions. The perpetrators accomplished their nefarious work sometime during the midnight hours.

After some further statements he adds—

We are gratified in being enabled to announce that these mob proceedings against us are condemned by all the respectable and intelligent men of the community. The prompt action of the Magistrates yesterday shows a spirit of friendship toward us, and a determination to put down such unlawful proceedings. Not only the magistrates but the merchants and other respectable men of the place are on the side of law and order.

We are not the man to cower or falter in our course while in the discharge of our duties as a journalist. We do what we consciously believe to be right. If our malignant persecutors imagine that we are destitute of pluck, they may find themselves disagreeably mistaken. At any rate we shall hereafter be better prepared to resist such fiendish outrages as this, and if in defence of ourselves and our property, our midnight assailants get their just deserts at our hands, we believe we shall be sustained by the law abiding citizens of the community.

OUR RAILROAD TRAINS. The Lewiston Journal of Wednesday says—

Owing to the severity of the storm the arrival at Lewiston of the afternoon train on the B & Farmington Road was delayed till some time in the night. The trains on the Androscoggin & Kennebec came nearly up to their usual time. The train from Bangor to Portland was only eight minutes behind time, while the train from Portland to Bangor was three quarters of an hour late, owing to the fact that it had to wait in Portland for the Boston train.

FIRE. J E Shorey of Bancroft writes us that the barn of Barney Fitzpatrick of Bancroft Mills with its contents, consisting of hay and grain, two cows, two horses, two hogs and considerable other property, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 8th inst. Loss $800—no insurance.

Also, on the night of the 11th inst, the barn of John Hamilton, of the same place, together with three cows, two oxen and two horses, some thirty tons of hay, etc.

☞ The ladies of Orono are not behind those of other towns in the patriotic work of providing hospital stores and comfortable mittens and socks for the soldiers. They have already forwarded one large box containing, 83 pairs stockings, 24 pairs mittens, 5 pairs shirts 10 pairs draws, 21 sheets 26 pillow cases 14 pillows, 4 comforters 4 extra wool blankets, and a large supply of bandages and compresses, and they have commenced to fill another box which will be ready soon.

The following military appointments have been made—8th Maine Regiment, Lieut. Colonel John D Rust has been promoted to Colonel vice Colonel Lee Strickland, resigned. Major E W Woodman promoted to Lieut. Colonel, vice J D Rust promoted. Captain Joseph F Twitchell, Company B appointed Major, vice E W Woodman promoted.

Major Silas M Fuller has been promoted to Lieut Colonel of the 4th.

Captain E Walker has been promoted to Major of the 4th.

The following resignations have taken place Capt J H Milliken of Belfast, Co H, Lieut Colonel Colman Harding, 9th Regiment. Capt John Pomeroy, Co I, 11th Regiment. Dr Albert S Clark Surgeon of 11th Regiment. Capt W F Cushman of the 7th, and Capt H Rolfe of Mayville, Co I.

Hon Aaron A Wing of Bangor, is now visiting the camps in this city for the purpose of aiding all the soldiers from Bangor and vicinity in making an allotment of pay for the home benefit of themselves and their families. This is a subject which should interest every officer and soldier in the field. After concluding his labors here, Mr Wing will proceed to the camps on the Potomac for the same purpose.

DIPHTHERIA. A correspondent of the Aroostook Pioneer says that there have been fifty deaths by diphtheria in Patten and vicinity during the last summer and fall. There have probably been two or three hundred cases. The disease is now abating. The writer is a physician, and gives the following as a successful mode of treatment—

In Hall's Journal of Health, is the following excellent method of curing croup, which I have used in treating diphtheria, with success: "Take two or three pieces of woolen flannel of two folds, large enough to cover the whole throat. Put these in a pan of water as hot as the hand can bear, and keep it thus hot by adding boiling water from a tea kettle at hand. Let two of the flannels be in the hot water all the time, and one on the throat, with a dry flannel to cover the wet one, so as to keep the steam in to some extent. The flannels should not be so wet as to dribble the water, for it is important to keep the clothing as dry as possible, not the body and feet of the child comfortable and warm. As soon as one flannel gets a little cool, put an another hot one, with as little interval of exposure as possible, and keep up this process [illegible] Relief comes, or death. The phlegm is seen, the child cools, and breaks to full sweat—then generally sleeps. Keep up the steam [illegible] cover it thoroughly, and the child will live.

New Department for Portland Harbor. Mayor Thomas of Portland has recently visited Washington, and gives a report to the City Council of his interview with the Secretary of War.—Of the result he says That in accordance with Gen. Washburne's idea of the proper plan of defence, instructions were given to Capt T L Casey, "Corps of Engineers in charge of the fortifications on the seaboard of Maine and New Hampshire," as follows

To examine the outlying and other points of land about Portland harbor for the purpose of determining suitable positions for long range guns which will prevent vessels from taking up positions under cover of the high land, from which the city may be bombarded or cannonaded, also to examine the hill on the eastern end of the city, with a view to the establishment there of extensive temporary batteries which shall reach the northern and northeastern waters.

These instructions have already been received by Captain Casey, who has already entered up on the work, and will complete it very shortly. Gen Totten has frequently visited the city, and is well acquainted with its position and fortifications. I also had the succeeding day, with Senator Fessenden, an interview with Gen Ripley, head of the Ordnance Bureau. He assured us that the first guns cast by the Portland Company should be placed upon our fortifications, that he would within a few days forward drawings and specifications to the Company for the construction of guns—that requisitions for powder and ball should be immediately met also provision for gun carriages, and that within a few days Captain Rodman of the Ordnance Department would visit Portland for the purpose of reporting what ordnance, &c., is necessary.

Mr Sparrow, Superintendent of the Portland Works, says that they shall be able to commence the casting of the guns required very soon, for which service they have been preparing their Works.

ARTILLERY FOR PORTLAND. An order was sent from Washington to Fort Monroe on Tuesday for heavy artillery to be sent to Portland.

HEAVY IMPORTATIONS OF ARMS. By the following statements which we find in the New York Post it will be seen that very large supplies of arms and munitions have recently been received from Europe

The Hamburg steamer Teutonia which arrived on the 23d brought over seventy five thousand stand of arms principally rifles for the Government. The arms are of various kinds a few of them are old muskets but nearly all are new and excellent arms. The largest proportion of this shipment was obtained in Austria.

The steamship Hansa of the Bremen line also brings a cargo quite as large—a portion of them from France and England.

The steamer Damascus, recently from Liverpool, is now discharging a quantity of arms and lead. Of the former there are only a few thousand stand—less than five, but there are one hundred casks of large lead, each cask weighing fourteen to fifteen hundred pounds.

It is estimated that nearly a quarter of a million stand of arms have been brought to this country during the past four months by the Hamburg line of steamships. Besides these a large amount of war material, including infantry and cavalry equipments, have been imported from Europe.

The Bremen line which has kept up a monthly communication, has of course, though some of the cargoes have been very large, brought a less number. But during the four or five months past it has undoubtedly brought a hundred and fifty thousand stand, besides equipments.

The preparations for Capt D D Porter's expeditionary fleet of mortar boats proceed slowly in New York on account of the delay in forwarding the mortars from Pittsburgh. Less than half a dozen of them have yet be delivered, and the whole number wanted is about twenty five. The mortars weigh 17,000 pounds each, independent of the bed plates on which they will rest, and will throw shells of 220 lbs. They are made expressly for the expedition and their product on and delivery are necessarily a slow work. Besides one of these gigantic engines of death, each vessel will carry two enormous smooth bore guns for battering service.

A great pressure is made upon the War Department, by members of Congress to have the army bakery removed from the basement of the capitol. The objection to it can be none other than the perfume of freshly baked bread. The cost of establishing a new bakery would be at least $50 000.

Additional News per steamer Niagara—Rumored Rebel Despatches by the Trent—The Protectorate of the South Offered to Great Britain—Large Order for Ten-inch Columbiads—Contracts for Immense Quantities of Small Arms &c—Indian Tribes will fight for the Union—The Rebels fear that Mason and Slidell will be Surrendered.

HALIFAX, 26th

The London Times publishes a letter from Thurlow Weed, the main object of which is to defend the American Government, and Mr Seward particularly, from the charges of holding hostile intentions towards England He disclaims in behalf of Mr Seward any unfriendly feelings or intentions towards England, and says that the threat which Mr Seward made to the Duke of Newcastle was merely idle talk or badinage.

Mr Weed says he thinks if England's despatch to Lord Lyons is peremptory in tone, it will meet with a peremptory refusal He appeals for moderate counsels on both sides, as the only method of avoiding a collision

The Times editorially comments on Weed's letter and says he has made the case of his client and his country considerably worse than he found it It says England asks nothing from America but that she shall abstain from actual outrage, or that if it is committed, she shall make reasonable reparation If she will do this it is well, if not, the alternative will not come in the desired form of protracted negotiation

The Morning Herald, conservative, takes strong ground against The Daily News' arguments in favor of arbitration, and opposes such a settlement in toto It says negotiations cannot be listened to while Mason and Slidell are retained as prisoners

The Paris correspondent of the Times says the general belief is that Gen Scott has gone back to Washington with the intention of enlightening the Washington cabinet as to the views of the French government. He is doubtless acquainted with the opinion of the Emperor, and that it is not favorable to Mr Lincoln's policy Gen Scott will probably convince his countrymen that they cannot depend on the moral support of France Something is also said of his being charged to propose the mediation of the French government

The Sheffield Foreign Affairs Committee had petitioned the government to visit the high displeasure on Capt Moir and Commander Williams for having in the Trent affair violated the Royal proclamation, and thereby show to Americans that Englands' neutrality is strict and impartial

NEW YORK, 27th

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that a scouting party was sent out today in the direction of Drainsville They report 13,000 rebel troops in that vicinity

It is believed in Washington that the present position of England is attributable to dispatches which went to England in the Trent, tending to Great Britain the protectorate over the seceded States, and offering to make them a British Colonial dependence

The Tribune's Washington despatch says that the joint committee of both Houses to inquire into the conduct of the war, are holding daily sessions Today they had before them Generals McDowell, Heintzelman and Franklin The committee are trying to get at the cause of the Bull Run disaster, and where the responsibility belongs They intend also to institute a rigid enquiry into the Ball's Bluff disaster

On Tuesday an order went from the Ordnance Department to three of the largest cannon foundries in the country, viz one in Pittsburg, one at West Point, and Alger's in Boston, to manufacture to their utmost capacity 10 inch columbiads for the next twelve months Their present force would in that time yield 1800 guns Contracts for immense quantities of ordnance, small arms, and shot and shell, have been made this week

The Times' Washington despatch says that a despatch has been received from Gen Halleck today, announcing that Col Bishop's detachment overtook a party of the bridge burners of the North Missouri Railroad, on Monday, and killed 10 and took 17 prisoners and 30 horses.

Gen Halleck also says that the damage to the railroads will be repaired in three days

Gen McClellan was better last evening His disease is a mild form of typhoid fever He will be again in saddle within three days.

Gen Scott remains here. He sent letters to Secretary Seward last night

FORTRESS MONROE, 26th

A flag of truce took an immence quantity of clothing to Norfolk this afternoon, destined for prisoners at Richmond, New Orleans and elsewhere

WASHINGTON, 27th

Judge Advocate Army has just arrived from New Mexico, bringing despatches from federal army officers in New Mexico, to the government He reports a strong Union feeling in the territory

Col Canby, in command of the military department of New Mexico, has retaken Forts Craig and Staunton, on the Mesilla border, driving the Texans away

He was at latest dates en route for Fort Fillmore to dispossess the enemy there, that post having been traitorously surrendered by Major Lynde to an inferior force of Texans From thence he intends marching into Arizona to drive off the rebels Having a sufficient force, there can be no doubt of his success

Judge Advocate Army, on his way hither, passed at Big Bend, on the Arkansas, camps of the confederate tribes of the plains, consisting of about 6,000 Arapahoes Kiowas Camanches Cheyennes and Prairie Apaches. They desired him to say when he reached Washington, that they would fight for their great father in defence of the Union

The Legislature of New Mexico will probably repeal the slave code enacted two years ago

Kit Carson, now Colonel, is in command of a regiment of mounted rangers south of the Rio Grand making headquarters at Albuquerque

Judge Army succeeded him as Indian Agent, and is cooperating with him, using the Indians as scouts As the military force advances south the secession troops retreat

NEW YORK, 27th

A letter from Port Royal reports the occupation of Fenwich Island by our troops, extending our lines to South Edisto river, 25 miles from Charleston

The New York papers have ridiculous despatches from Washington stating that Lord Lyons, instead of making issue on the Mason and Slidell affair, has revived the State of Maine boundary question, demanding the relinquishment of a part of the State to England

WASHINGTON, 27

The Richmond Examiner of Tuesday greatly fears the United States will surrender Mason and Slidell to the British authorities, saying it will submit to a shame yet to be recorded in the history of any nation, rather than disturb the infernal purpose of grinding into dust the liberties of the people of the South By abject submission to the demand, the United States may avert, only for awhile, war with England

The Examiner says a fleet is now the most exigent desideratum with the South and censures the confederate government and officers of the Navy for their singular torpidity in all matters pertaining to shape during the whole progress of the war

The general appropriation bill, approved by Jeff Davis, appropriates for the army about sixty millions, and for the navy about four millions

The North Carolina, loaded with forage consigned to Col Ingalls of the Quartermaster's department, of Alexandria, arrived at Liverpool Point today from New York in a leaky condition She, in connection with others are expected to pass the rebel batteries hitherward tonight.

The steamer Tobacco, Capt Bright, arrived here yesterday from Philadelphia, having run the blockade without a shot fired at her She is at Georgetown, and will commence her trips Monday The slips and ferry wharves being nearly completed, this is one of the greatest improvements made by the Government, and will greatly facilitate the transportation of the heavy army wagons which are constantly passing between this city and Virginia, and will relieve the Long Bridge from the pressure of the teams which have hitherto been forced upon it

A committee of the Philadelphia City Council arrived here today and visited the Navy and War Departments on business connected with the defence of that city

Capt Powers, Asst Adj't Gen'l to Gen'l Martindale, was seriously injured Wednesday while riding through the woods near Falls Church He was thrown from his horse by coming in contact with the limb of a tree, and laid insensible several hours He is in a fair way of recovery

Congressman Ely arr ved this morning

LOUISVILLE, 27th.

A letter to the Democrat from London, Ky., says that there are only 1,000 rebels at Cumberland Gap, under Col Raines They have sent their sick to Knoxville and their pickets extend to five miles this side of the Gap

We have no news from Somerset today

A Mr. Duff, who has just arrived, reports that there was a fight on Tuesday night at Joseph Conner's house in Perry Co, between 118 rebels and 47 Union men The rebels were completely routed with 16 wounded The Federals lost nothing

Rebels are prowling through Perry, Letcher and Breathitt counties robbing and swearing Union men to support the Southern Confederacy

ST LOUIS, 27th

The following resume of the recent military operations in Missouri, is obtained from a reliable source

Within the last two weeks the Union army has captured 2,500 rebels, including about 70 commissioned officers, 1,200 horses and mules 1100 stands of arms, two tons of powder, 100 wagons, and an immense amount of commissary stores and camp equipage.

A large foundry at Lexington used by the rebels for casting cannon, shot and shell, and most of the rebel craft in the Missouri, including ferry boats, have been destroyed or captured A pretty clean sweep has been made of the whole country between the Missouri and Osage rivers and Gen Price, cut off from all supplies and recruits from North Missouri is in full retreat for Arkansas with his army having passed thru Springfield Monday last.

Our loss in accomplishing these important results did not exceed 100 killed and wounded — These are the points of brilliant strategic combinations of Gen Halleck, which have been so ably executed by Generals Pope, Prentiss and Nickson, and Colonels Jeff C Davis of the Fort Sumter fame, and Fred Steele of the 11th Regular Infantry, and the brave officers and soldiers of our army—Regulars and Volunteers

Gen Price's designs to stir up rebellion in North Missouri, and simultaneously burn all railroad bridges stations and rolling stock on the 20th of this month in accordance with a plan promulgated from the rebel camp have been foiled to a great extent in their plan by the energy of Gen Halleck and activity of our forces, which are kept in a constant motion, notwithstanding the severity of the weather

The damage done to the North Missouri & Hannibal & St Joseph R R, has been greatly exaggerated Repairs are being rapidly made, and with the telegraph and railroad will be in working order to Wellsville tonight

Ten bridge burners have already been shot, and 50 are in close confinement, to be summarily dealt with under General Halleck's stringent orders.

It is confidently expected that our moving columns will as effectually in a few days, break up bridge burning in North Missouri, as the rebellion has been crushed South of the river

No mercy will be shown the scoundrels, as Gen Halleck's emphatic orders with reference to bridge burners are to shoot down every one making the attempt

Major Gover has just returned from a scout in Camden County, with ten wagon loads of of subsistence, a rebel captain and thirteen men who left Price's army since his retreat commenced

Gen Pope's official report of his expedition in Central Missouri has been received, but contains nothing important which has not been reported

OTTERVILLE, Mo, 27

A prisoner who escaped from the rebel camp at Hermansville last Saturday, reports that when the news that Gen Pope's cavalry had driven Gen Raines 8 pickets at Johnstown, was received by Gen Price's army, the greatest consternation prevailed. The cavalry, artillery, infantry and raw ragged and unarmed recruits were mixed up in inextricable confusion, and many hours elapsed before anything like order was restored The retreat of the whole army commenced as soon as as possible, and so fearful were they of pursuit that they burned bridges and placed every obstruction in the way of the fancied pursuing party Even the celebrated bridge built by Gen Fremont across the Osage was not spared by the flying rebels." It is reported that one regiment was left on the Osage as a rear guard, and that several small bodies are scattered through the counties about Warrensburg, collecting supplies

The last report from Price is that he passed through Springfield, on route to Arkansas, and it is freely thought that he will not attempt to return this winter

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE. Lewiston Dec 26th About half past 10 o clock last evening there was an alarm of fire, which was found to be in the watch house, supposed to have been set by one of the prisoners confined there for theft—All haste was made to extinguish the flames, but did not succeed until two of the prisoners were burned to death—one a Mr Cummings of Lisbon and Daniel Hartney of this place

TO HORSE OWNERS.

DR SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, FOR HORSES, is universally used by many, and in all cases of lameness arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching its effect is magical and certain Harness or Saddle Galls Scratches, Mange &c it will also cure speedily Spavin and Ringbone may be prevented and cured in their incipient stages but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

DR. WOLFF

Finding it impossible to leave a large and increasing list of patients at Calais, hereby informs his friends in Bangor that he will be obliged to defer his visit until next month, at which time he will be pleased to attend to them dec4

A FRIEND IN NEED TRY IT.

DR SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT is prepared from the recipe of Dr Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the great bone setter and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success As an external remedy it is without a rival and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation For all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a curative for Sores Wounds, Sprains Bruises &c its soothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have once given it a trial Over four hundred certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest the fact. See advertisement sowdlw

TO THE PUBLIC.

Numerous imitations of the STEWART STOVE having appeared in the market during the past few years, and, of late, attempts having been made to counterfeit the name or trade mark it is deemed highly important that the public should know how to distinguish the genuine article when making purchases for a stove

Ask for the genuine P F STEWART Stove, and see that P F STEWART's name is on the hearth plate of each Stove. The names of the only manufacturers, Fuller, Warren & Co., are on each Stove.

CLOTHING.

GENTLEMEN:

Having a lease for years the fixtures of Tailors doing a credit business, and having myself proved that system to be utterly wrong for the Retail Tailoring business, I feel compelled to adopt the CASH SYSTEM It is better for the customer will expects to pay for his Garments, as the amount lost by bad debts, under the credit system, is divided between the patrons and the patronized, as the former receive it by paying as much as 20 per cent. less for their garments, and the latter is saved from bank ruptcy Course, consequently I would invite all Cash paying customers to examine the Stock of Goods now on hand, and see if the prices are not 20 per cent. less than at any other Clothing House in the city The Cutting Department is under the charge of favorably known in New York and Boston as one of the Best Artists in the Art of Cutting.

CURES OF DEAFNESS OF LONG STANDING—The following case of Joseph Dillingham well known in the town of Hudson is another testimony to the skill of Dr Lighthill

Mr Editor—Dear Sir A feeling of gratitude for a real Benefaction and a desire to benefit others similarly afflicted impels me to state the following For 16 years I was very deaf could not hear the voices of my wife and family nor sound I hear preaching or public speaking even when close to the speaker I had a constant beating in my ears at times it would sound in my head as though a steam engine was pushing near me In the month of October I placed myself under Dr Lighthill and was entirely restored my hearing and I can now hear as well as any one. I am 56 years of age and reside in the town of Hudson, in this county Respectfully yours JOSEPH DARLING

MADE ON

PLUMER'S PATENT ANATOMICAL LASTS!

[From J V C Smith, M D, formerly Mayor of Boston]

PLUMER'S PATENT BOOTS.

The Undersigned has worn a pair of these improved Boots, and feels grateful to the Inventor for the comfort derived from them. The nice adjustment of the sole to every part of the under surface of the foot, is an important circumstance which seems to have been entirely overlooked till Dr Plumer planned his Last and Boot, upon truly scientific principles

Those who have once had an opportunity to test the real advantages of these Philosophically made Boots will hardly be reconciled to wear any other

J. V C SMITH

Boston, July 26 1861

J C PLUMER, M D

Dear Sir I am greatly delighted with your newly invented boots which I have worn during the past winter and only wonder that the world should have been so stupid as not to have made the discovery half a century ago. Any one with a grain of common sense and a moments reflection cannot fail to see that your "PATENT BOOTS AND SHOES" are perfectly adapted to the foot (that wonderful piece of Nature's Mechanism) giving to every portion of it a full and easy support, and I am sure that those who once make trial of your new invention will never go back to the old fashioned boots or shoes, which are so prolific of Corns, Bunions and a thousand other troubles. Your "Patent Boots" seems to be part and parcel of our Physical structure supporting the foot firmly, giving steadiness to the gait and promoting human comfort to an eminent degree especially in walking over rough surfaces.

I wish I knew of some means by which I could make known to every man, woman and child in Christendom the nature and importance of your invention. Very truly yours,

MORRIS MATTSON M D
65 Summer Street

PORTLAND July 12, 1860

DR. PLUMER—

Dear Sir Having learned the principle upon which your Anatomical Last is made I was favorably impressed as to its efficiency in relieving difficulty which all have experienced who have to walk considerably via severe pain in the feet after much walking. After having worn the boots made upon the "Anatomical Last" I found my anticipations more than realized. I can walk nearly all day without experiencing the above named difficulty in the least degree. I also escaped the fostering process of breaking in my boots for they were as easy at first as after they had been worn

HAIR RESTORATIVE

AND

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Impressively what the medical profession indicates to be pleasant to the taste, invigorating and revivifying in its effects, strengthen the vital powers—It also revivifies, restores and renews the blood in all the organs, purifies and invigorates and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So scientifically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect subordination with the laws of nature and hence so that the weakest stomach and tone up the digestive organs, invigorate the nervous and their functions, yet it is never enervating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those combined having powerful tonic and invigorating properties and consequently can never injure such a remedy has long been sought for to be found in a medicine. Hitherto it has been left to the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered by debility for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility lies at the root of disease, and days of the unguarded exposure open to the attacks of many diseases which are diseases to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such for example as the following: Consumption, bronchitis, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart melancholy hypochondria, night sweats, languor, cold feet, and all that blighted feeling of debility, which if unattended to in time, called female weakness and irregularities. Also for derangements of torpidity and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back side and between the shoulders, predisposition to the colds, hacking and confined cough, on occasion, difficulty of breathing and indeed in fact enumerate the many ills to which but we have space only to say it will not only cure the debility to follow the chills and fever but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic influences and cure the diseases at once if already attacked. Acting as it acts directly and powerfully upon the biliary system strengthening the liver to act on the principle that all the excretory and secretory functions of the system it will effectually prevent any storm in consequence follows in, and in a cheap point of view and water, hence all travellers should have a bottle with them, and a bottle taken a table spoonful at least before retiring. As a preventative against sickness, it is the first and only article of the kind ever offered to the public, called family medicine, and it is the cheapest and most efficient remedy against those ills which result from the effects of their beauty, or beauty cannot exist without health and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. The system in the course taken a period of time a relief. Take a bottle or two before the final trial, and will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no one like about it this article is all we claim for it. Nothing, try it. And to you we appeal to decide the fairness or justice of not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for which the future in false secrecy often go and wrong to a premature grave rather than lay the condition be known to one the latter are often mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant and if you are confidently appeal, for we are sure your never failing affect on will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. DR SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment!

—THE—

Great External Remedy

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Stiff Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders.

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically RHEUMATIC DISORDERS. Never fail and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

For NEURALGIA it will afford immediate relief in every case however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

For LAMENESS arising from injudicious or excessive use of the limbs it is equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial for it will in all cases afford immediate relief and in a majority of cases a lasting cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous but it invariably proves to be the best remedy in these cases.

SPRAINS are sometimes so severe as to render the joints almost useless for a long time, the worst cases may be speedily cured by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS will yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT. Also CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET and INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand for its timely use at the risk of a valuable horse, as it will effectually prevent the most formidable diseases to which all horses are liable and which render so many other wise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over one hundred testimonials to the wonderful curative powers of this Liniment have been received within the past two years and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life

CAUTION

To avoid imposition observe the signature and likeness of Dr Stephen Sweet on every label and also Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment blown in the glass. Each bottle without these marks is a spurious article.

BATTLE CREEK Mich Dec 21 1858

Prof Wood—Dear Sir will please accept a line to inform you that the hair on my head half bald for twenty years and consequently subjected to chronic disease attendant with an eruption on the head and continual course of suffering, the night I was induced to use a bottle of your Hair Restorative. I have not been able to trace any consequence of which my head has said red or remedy from cold. This I need not to say I feel as well as the first of August last. I have a thickly filled with the hair and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black though short. It is also coming in all over my head. Feeling satisfied that one large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently I feel anxious to persuade in the same and to my destitute of means to purchase any more I would ask of you these would look well if you could send one dollar worth of your Hair Restorative to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless

Thy friend SUSANNAH KIRBY

Prof O J Wood—Dear Sir In the latter part of the year 1858 while attending the State and National Law School in the State of New York my hair from a dark brown was changed almost falling off very rapidly. I took special care of my health the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray so that you will not be surprised when I tell that upon my return to the State of Illinois my personal acquaintances were not so much astonished at the cause of the change in my appearance as by more immediate acquaintances were a recognize me at all

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country but receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored I resolved to become reconciled to my fate until I received from the latter part of the year 1859 your Hair Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars worth of your Hair Restorative and as a result have a head of very soft black hair which no money can buy

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances who I am happy to inform you are using it with the best effect.

Very respectfully yours A M LATTA,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz large medium and small. The small holds half a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle the medium holds at least twenty per cent more than the small retails for two dollars and a half the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion and retails for three dollars
